Antoine Adeline is a partner within the International Dispute Resolution department of the Paris office. He is a French and Canadian national, has lived and practised in England for 5 years and brings to the firm 25 years' experience as a trial advocate and litigation and arbitration lawyer in a highly international environment.

His particular focus is on arbitration, cross border disputes, Alternative Dispute Resolution (Mediation) and corporate insolvency.

Although he has particular experience in such areas as construction, software and various manufacturing industries, he represents a diverse range of businesses from public, multi-nationals and household names through to larger SMEs.

He graduated from Panthéon-Sorbonne university in Paris and the London School of Economics. He has been dual qualified in France and England for the last fourteen years and is completely bilingual in French and English. Since 1998 he teaches international arbitration and mediation to post-graduate students at Panthéon-Sorbonne University. Antoine has written numerous publications on Dispute Resolution and corporate insolvency, and is invited as a speaker at various seminars and conferences (e.g. French Senate, LSE, ICDR, CEPR etc).
