

Annet van Hooft, Bird & Bird, Partner

Annet co-heads Bird & Bird's International Dispute Resolution Group and is based in Paris.

She is a Vice-Chair of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR.

Admitted to practice in both common and civil law jurisdictions (Rotterdam, New York and Paris bars), Annet practiced at major U.S. law firms in Brussels, New York and Paris before joining Bird & Bird. She has a broad range of experience handling international arbitrations under various applicable laws and in a wide variety of sectors and fields.

She has served as counsel in arbitrations conducted under most major institutional rules and in ad hoc proceedings. She regularly sits as arbitrator and is fluent in Dutch, English, French, and German.

Annet is the co-author of 'Arbitrating under the 2012 ICC Rules: An Introductory User's Guide' published by Kluwer Law International. She is also the editor-in-chief of the Belgian B-Arbitra magazine on international arbitration. This biannual journal promotes dialogue on novel issues in the field of arbitration and will be published by Kluwer and included in the Kluwer Arbitration Database mid-2017.
