

Christine GUERRIER graduated from the Université de Paris II in 1979 with a Diplôme D'Etudes Approfondies (DEA) in International Law.

She joined in 1980 Thomson SA, the holding Company of Thomson CSF as in-house lawyer.

She held various positions within the legal organization of the THALES Group (formerly known as Thomson CSF).

She spent a couple of years in private practice as a partner in a mid size French law firm and was admitted to the Paris Bar in 1994.

She went back to Thales in 1997 as Director of Litigation at the Corporate Headquarters.

She is now VP General Counsel Dispute Resolution and Litigation of the Thales Group.

In her experience as a in- house counsel, she has handled and supervised more than a hundred of international arbitrations and hundreds of legal court cases on numerous legal systems, as well as mediations and other ADR.

She is member of the International Court of arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce and a member of the American Arbitration Association Board.