

Diana Paraguacuto-Mahéo specializes in International Arbitration and other Alternative Dispute Resolution, most particularly Mediation. She also acts as counsel in cross-border disputes involving French and foreign court cases. Diana makes lasting impacts on the communities we live in by participating in diverse pro bono initiatives and providing advice to investors on sustainable, responsible and impact investing.

Diana regularly acts as arbitrator and is often nominated as mediator. She teaches International Arbitration at the trainee school of lawyers in Paris (EFB) and Mediation at the University of Montpellier. She is also a CEDR, CMAP and IFCM accredited mediator. Diana is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR where she co-chairs the Emergency Arbitrator Task Force. She is also a member of Arbitral Women, the International Bar Association, CEDR exchange and the International Mediation Institute.

Recipient of the prestigious Fulbright scholarship, Diana Paraguacuto-Mahéo graduated from the Universities of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne and Complutense in Madrid (1999), holds a DESS in Business and Tax Law from the University Paris II Panthéon-Assas (2000) and an LL.M. from Columbia University in New York (2001).

Before joining Ngo Jung & Partners, she worked in the Arbitration group of Dechert LLP. Previously, she worked for ten years in New York, first at Shearman & Sterling (Project Finance) where she began her career and then at Milbank (Litigation and Arbitration).

Diana is a qualified lawyer admitted to the Paris, New York and Madrid Bars.