Genevieve Helleringer is a law professor at Essec Business School and a fellow of St Catherine's College, Oxford. Her teaching includes international contract, business law, international arbitration and negotiation. Before completing her doctoral work, she worked for Shiseido in Japan, and practised corporate law at Willkie Farr & Gallagher in New York and later at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Paris (2000-2006). Her work was mainly in the field of corporate, private equity and capital markets, advising on investment funds for mergers and acquisitions and leveraged buy-outs for the supervision of legal audit, contractual negotiation, and drafting of sale, warranty, and shareholders' agreements. Her academic research focuses on contract, corporate and financial law and alternative dispute resolution, and draws on insights from comparative law, economics, sociology and psychology.

Geneviève's interest in arbitration and mediation is both academic and practical. She is an accredited mediator. Geneviève also holds a JD from Columbia University (1999), an MSc in legal sociology from Paris II Panthéon Assas University (2009), as well as an MSc and a doctorate in private law from the Sorbonne University (2010). She is admitted to the New York and the Paris Bars. She is an alumni of Essec Business School and Sciences-Po Paris. She also completed an MSc at Oxford University in experimental psychology.
