

Professor Dr. PIERRE d'ARGENT, LL.M. (Cantab)

Professor of Public International Law

Pierre d'Argent teaches and practices international law. He is full professor at the University of Louvain and guest professor at the University of Leiden. He has been director of studies and taught a summer course at The Hague Academy of International Law. Associate Member of the Institute of International Law, he is the author of about 90 published articles, an award-winning book, a MOOC on edX.org and courses on the UN Audiovisual Library of International Law. Member of the editorial boards of the RBDI and the AFDI; member of the boards of the European, French and Belgian societies of international law.

He appeared as counsel before the International Court of Justice and later served the ICJ as First Secretary. He is a member of the Brussels Bar, special counsel to Foley Hoag LLP, and argues international law cases before international tribunals and domestic courts.

